

CONGRATULATIONS STEWARDSON-STRASBURG HIGH SCHOOL COMETS

HON. GLENN POSHARD

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 7, 1995

Mr. POSHARD. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate the Stewardson-Strasburg High School Comets on their outstanding basketball season. Lead by head coach Monte Nohren, and assistant coach John Giesler the Comets tipped off this season and never looked back.

Throughout the 1994-95 varsity season the Comets were determined to make it to the State tournament in Champaign. With hard work and dedication the Comets blazed into assembly hall this March as part of the "elite eight."

The Comets players: Ryan Moomaw, Ryan Cox, Mark Giertz, Christian Merriman, Craig Ogle, Eric Roley, Phil Manhart, Bock Frieze, Patrick Merriman, Scott Meers, Dustin Rothrock, and Derrick York are to be especially congratulated for their performance this season. These fine young men exemplify the concept of good sportsmanship, and understand that while they did not take home the state trophy, they are still champions.

Mr. Speaker, I am honored to represent this excellent team in Congress and I look forward to next season when the Comets once again set their sights on Champaign.

THE INTRODUCTION OF THE NATIONAL CHILDREN'S ISLAND ACT OF 1995

HON. ELEANOR HOLMES NORTON

OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 7, 1995

Ms. NORTON. Mr. Speaker, today, at the request of the District of Columbia, I am introducing the National Children's Island Act of 1995, which will transfer the national park service land on Heritage and Kingman Islands in the Anacostia River to the District of Columbia. These lands will then be developed by National Children's Island, a nonprofit organization, as a year round recreational and educational park and playground free to the public. National Children's Island is a fully private enterprise project in the District of Columbia.

The District estimates that the park will mean not only recreational and educational facilities for residents and tourists, but also over 1,500 full- and part-time jobs, with at least 51 percent of such jobs going to District residents. The park will bring revenue to the District projected at $12 million. A share of the park profits and revenues will be earmarked for educational grants, scholarships, and other programs. The park also will have educational pavilions that will feature a number of the sciences, especially computers, medicine, and the environment.

IN HONOR OF MAYOR ALAN H. JEPSON

HON. ROSA L. DeLAURO

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 6, 1995

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, on Wednesday, April 12, the Milford District of the Quinnipiac Council of the Boy Scouts of America gathers to honor former Milford Mayor Alan H. Jepson with its annual Good Scout Award. This award is given to those who exhibit the high ideals that the Boy Scouts exemplify. Alan Jepson is such a man, and I would like to join the Milford Boy Scouts in paying tribute to this exceptional public servant who has also been a longtime family friend and personal mentor.

Alan Jepson has devoted his entire life to serving others. Few are more deserving of the Good Scout Award than this gentleman who has lived his entire life by the lessons he learned early as a Boy Scout. Duty, honor and country guided his choices as he enlisted in the Navy at age 17 and then went on to serve his community as mayor and city clerk.

Alan Jepson can still recite the Boy Scout oath from memory and has made those words the guiding force of his lifetime of service. The Boy Scouts helped prepare him for the rigors of World War II as he entered the Navy in service of our Nation. As with so many of the men and women who served our country during those trying times, Al Jepson was willing to make sacrifices on behalf of those who served with him.

The early lessons learned from scouting and the hard lessons learned during his time in the service helped prepare Al to become one of our most respected community leaders. He served three terms as mayor of the city of Milford in the 1960's. His energetic and compassionate style earned him the respect of the entire community. His creative initiatives, like civic day, which he founded, continues to allow Milford's young people to learn about city government and its important role in their lives. The legacy of this program has inspired generations since then and will forever enhance the city of Milford.

As the Milford Boy Scouts honor Alan H. Jepson, I am pleased to congratulate him, and to express my deep appreciation for all he has given us. He has earned a special place in the hearts of all of us whom he has touched and enriched through his leadership and guidance. Alan Jepson is well-deserving of the Good Scout Award, and I commend him for his many years of service.

THE ACCESS TO CHILDREN'S HEALTH CARE ACT OF 1995 AND THE CHILDREN'S HEALTH EQUITY ACT OF 1995

HON. BLANCHE LAMBERT LINCOLN

OF ARKANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 7, 1995

Mrs. LINCOLN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to introduce the Access to Children's Health Care Act of 1995 and the Children's Health Equity Act of 1995.

The first bill will allow children's hospitals to qualify as federally qualified health centers

[FQHC], Thus strengthening the vital safety net of services for low-income and underserved children with special health care needs.

As the number of children in poverty has grown and private coverage of dependents has declined, children's hospitals have increasingly become the primary care pediatrician and pediatric specialist for children. In addition, children's hospitals accept all children regardless of their ability to pay and substantially underwrite outpatient care. By allowing children's hospitals to qualify as FQHC's, the hospitals will receive reimbursement based on reasonable costs as defined by Medicaid.

The second bill, The Children's Health Equity Act of 1995, will require States that establish Medicaid managed care programs to continue enrolling children with special health care needs in traditional fee-for-service plans.

Today, more and more States are moving to Medicaid managed care plans, which can potentially present problems for very sick or disabled children. Specifically, HMO-type plans can systematically deny care to very sick children by not having enough or any pediatric specialists on contract.

This bill seeks to protect children with special health care needs by requiring States who adopt Medicaid managed care programs to keep such children enrolled in traditional fee-for-service programs. Most often, traditional Medicaid fee-for-service plans provide necessary access to pediatric specialists for children with special health care needs.

I believe mainstreaming the Medicaid population holds many advantages for those enrolled in Medicaid. But we cannot put the children in the greatest need of access to specialty health care at additional risk of being denied necessary services.

I urge my colleagues to take a serious look at these important bills to guarantee appropriate health care for the children in their districts with special health needs.

FRANK R. BARNETT: A FIGHTER AGAINST TYRANNY THROUGHOUT THE WORLD

HON. STENY H. HOYER

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, April 6, 1995

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Mr. Frank R. Barnett, a former member, cofounder and director of the American Bar Association's Standing Committee on Law and National Security.

As a member of the Commission on Security and Cooperation in Europe, known as the Helsinki Commission, I, like Frank Barnett, have been outspoken in our opposition to human rights violations throughout the world. Frank Barnett not only opposed tyranny throughout the world, but he was a strong advocate in promoting freedom and democracy around the globe.

Mr. R. Daniel McMichael, of the Scaife Foundation in Pittsburgh, who joined in helping Frank Barnett create the Standing Committee on Law and National Security, provided a fitting tribute last year to Frank Barnett, which was printed in the January 1995 American Bar Association National Security Law Report. I am pleased to submit for my colleagues the
